SUITES FOR ORGAN

SUITE by RALPH E. CLEWELL

Overture—Menuet—Aria—Gavotte—Finale

(Schmidt's Educational Series No. 374) Price $1.00 net

One of the most attractive things for organ that I have seen in ages, a splendid recital work and every number suitable for church use! I am delighted with it and am sure it will go big.—Roland Diggle.

There is not a dry page to be found, and every number is useful separately. There is nothing at all difficult about it, but the effect is one of extreme brilliance, thus making the work of unusual value to the concert organist as well as to the average player.—The Musician.

TOCCATA, CARILLON and MARCH by WILLIAM FAULKES

Price $1.00 net

The Toccata is sparkling, in the modern manner; the Carillon descriptive and quite simple; the March (on a theme from Handel) as useful and effective an organ march as we know, and just right as a Postlude for church use.—The Musician.

SUITE IN D by ARTHUR FOOTE, Op. 54

Price $1.25 net

The Suite begins with an introduction in the true eighteenth century manner, suggestive of those full-sounding "tutti" passages which ushered in the symphonies and concerti grossi of that day. The first movement following the "maestoso" introduction, is an "allegro energico" and is laid out and executed along broad lines. The second movement is a "quasi minuetto" with a fascinating rhythmic piquancy produced by the intrusion now and then of a two-four measure into the smoothly flowing three-four of the minuet. The last movement is a brilliant "allegro commodo."—Harold Vincent Milligan in The Diapason.

SUITE ARABESQUE by F. W. HOLLOWAY

Introduction—Andante Morisco (Arabia Deserta)—Allegretto Leggiero (Arabia Felix)—Finale

(Schmidt's Educational Series No. 266) Price $1.00 net

As descriptive or program music the Suite Arabesque is good and well worth using. It is very easy to play and can be well done on any average organ . . . It should be in every library, especially will theatre organists need it.—American Organist.

WEDDING SUITE by OLIVER KING, Op. 120

TWILIGHT SKETCHES by EDWIN H. LEMARE, Op. 138

Sundown—The Thrush—The Glow-worm—Firefly—Dusk Price $1.25 net

Each is an inspired little sketch, musically rich and colorful and carried out in a highly skilful manner . . . The sketches combine his sure technical touch with genuinely interesting ideas, and the result is particularly satisfying.—Musical America.

CAMEOS by ORLANDO A. MANSFIELD

Rejoicing in Hope—Thanksgiving and the Voice of Melody—On Earth Peace
Hosanna in the Highest—Abide with Us

(Schmidt's Educational Series No. 400) Price $1.00 net

ALPINE SUITE by BENNA MOE, Op. 12

Morning—Shepherd Pipes—Evening—Hymn of Praise

(Schmidt's Educational Series No. 397) Price $1.00 net

An attractive suite in four movements by a young Danish composer.

SUITE IN G MINOR by EVERETT E. TRUETTE, Op. 29

Price $1.50 net

Dignity and melody are combined in the first movement . . . the intermezzo is a beautiful adagio movement and the ending of the melody is most effective. Then comes a stately grand choeur, followed by a meditation, closing with a brilliant fugue.—New Music Review.

NUPTIAL SUITE by EVERETT E. TRUETTE, Op. 32

Price $1.50 net

This five-movement suite has an extra-musical connotation which may be utilized by the performer in programming it, or may be dispensed with. The movements are entitled "Youth and the Maiden," "Cantique d'Amour," "The Betrothal," "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden," and "Wedding March." The musical program is "Introduction," "Romance," "Scherzo," "Nuptial Benediction," and "Finale."—The Diapason.
