Tempo di valse lento.

The musical score is written for piano and grand staff. It consists of five systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked "Tempo di valse lento." The first system includes dynamics such as pp and p dolce. The second system features p espress. and poco cresc.. The third system includes dimin, poco ritard., pp, and p/ espress molto., with the tempo marking a tempo. appearing above the staff. The fourth system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The fifth system concludes with poco ritard. and ends with a double bar line.

dimin. p calando

This system shows the beginning of a piece in G major. The right hand features a melodic line with slurs and accents, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment. The dynamics start with a decrescendo (dimin.) and then a piano (p) section with a gradual deceleration (calando).

Tempo I

The tempo changes to Tempo I. The music continues with a more active melodic line in the right hand and a rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand.

a tempo
p poco ritard. f espress. molto

The tempo returns to a tempo. The dynamics range from piano (p) to a gradual deceleration (poco ritard.) followed by a very expressive forte (f espress. molto).

ff espress.

The music reaches a very expressive forte (ff espress.) section with a more complex and dense texture in both hands.

Largo Tempo I calando
mf p dimin. sempre

The tempo changes to Largo for the first part of the system, then returns to Tempo I calando. Dynamics include mezzo-forte (mf), piano (p), and a continuous decrescendo (dimin. sempre).

mf f ff

The final system concludes with dynamics ranging from mezzo-forte (mf) to piano (p) and finally to fortissimo (ff).
