Choral Prelude on the Tune "St. Peter"

T. TERTIUS NOBLE

Very slow, and with intense feeling

p I-III

Soft. 16 and 8 ft. coupled to Choir

IV. French Horn

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The middle and bottom staves are bass clefs. The music features a complex melodic line in the treble with many beamed notes and slurs, and a more rhythmic bass line. A fingering instruction "I-III" is written below the first measure of the middle staff.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It follows the same three-staff layout as the first system, with treble and two bass staves. The melodic and harmonic development continues across these measures.

Third system of musical notation. The notation continues on three staves. A fingering instruction "IV" is written below the final measure of the middle staff.

Fourth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It consists of three staves in the same layout as the previous systems, concluding the musical passage.

IV Flute 8 ft.

This system contains three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a complex melodic line. The middle staff is a bass clef with a simple accompaniment. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a single line of music. The text "IV Flute 8 ft." is positioned to the right of the middle staff.

I-III

This system contains three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a melodic line. The middle staff is a bass clef with an accompaniment. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a single line of music. The text "I-III" is positioned below the middle staff.

This system contains three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a melodic line. The middle staff is a bass clef with an accompaniment. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a single line of music.

Solo

Hold back to end
